to whom it may concern;

During this past summer I worked at Boy Scout Camp Arrowhead as a nature counselor. I had heard a great many rumors and jokes about the homosexuality of the camp director (Royce Adkins) but had no proof and as such dismissed them. I talked to Royce often - about the program, about working at camp and about a particular incident in which I was involved (but has no connection with this) - and had always been treated fairly. I had respect for him. About two weeks before regular camp ended, I became quite ill and late that night I was borne on a stretcher to the health lodge. I was subjected to a regular examination and relieved of my clothing. I was placed in a back room to sleep. At one point sometime in the night (with all lights out) Royce came in to check on me. After feeling various parts of my body he placed his hand within my underwear and rested his hand on my pubic area. I started which caused his hasty retreat from the room. He evidently thought I had been asleep. I swear the above statement to be the truth!

To whom it may concern,

I have been asked to sign a statement concerning the moral behavior of Royce Adkins. I have full knowledge of the scope of this accusation and I, in no way, compose this statement with the least bit of malice, prejudice, or discrepancy against his personality, qualifications, leadership ability, etc.

On a Saturday night while camping with troop 55 at the River Bend campsite at Camp Arrowhead Royce Adkins and I decided to tent together. I was awoken by Royce Adkins massaging my penis and pubic area. I was very deeply shocked and surprised because I had acquired an admiration and respect for him in the past. I ran out of the tent and walked around for about five minutes. It was very cold and I started coughing and I couldn't stop so I didn't stay out in the cold and I went to get under the blankets. When I layed down Royce Adkins said he would "goose" me the next time I coughed and he did, And when he did I hit him. Then he grabbed my hand and tried to make me touch his pubic area so I hit him again. Then he reached for me again and I said, "If you want to see it wait til day light." This is when he stopped.

I swear that this statement is true and will testify that it is valid and will, at any time, if asked to do so, give a personal account to it as long as I will not jepordize myself when doing so.

In my opinion this act should not, by any circumstances, be duplicated at any time in the future. Because this act of homosexuality could very easily ruin the image of the Boy Scout movement as well as ruin the lives of many young citizens, I think that Royce Adkins should be expeled from the Natl. scouting movement.

I certify that this statement is valid and by no means an exaduration.
